If you believe this is an error and you have already filed your annual report for the 2026 year, you may ignore this message. To complete your filing without our service and fee you may file directly with the Department of State.

Reminder: Failure to file an annual report before May 1st may result in a penalty late fee of $400. Failure to file by the third Friday of September may result in the administrative dissolution or revocation of your business entity by the Florida Department of State.
